The Leadership Puzzle

Putting the Pieces Together

Adorna Carroll, DSA

This program helps leaders understand how the Local Association, State Association, Region and National Association are connected. In addition it reviews what happens when there are issues or areas of conflict and how all of those players manage those realities. It definitely puts all the pieces together for members so that they understand not only the basics but how each position fits with others. Fiduciary Duties, Anti-Trust, Voting on more than one level of the organization, how votes and actions get implemented, job descriptions, meeting agendas and much more!

Tuesday October 13, 2015

9 am to 3 pm

Attention new and veteran leaders and all volunteers!

This is your opportunity to hone your skills and discover new ideas for effective leadership. These skills will enhance your personal and professional business by giving real work, in-the-trenches information.

Session is open to all but if you are incoming state or local leadership, committee chair or vice chair, committee member or volunteer on other boards this will be vital information!

“Excellent class, very informative, especially with the different generations and up-coming technologies. Very enjoyable”

“Adorna speaks, be there to listen and hear!”

“Excellent!”
